

Introduction

- 1 From “Navigating Uncharted Territory” to “Vision Zero. No Accidents and a Healthy Workplace”; Helmut Nold, Berufsgenossenschaft Rohstoffe und chemische Industrie (BG RCI), Germany 9
- 2 Navigating in the Global Nation of EHS; John Dony, National Safety Council (NSC), USA 15

“Navigating Uncharted Territory”, Laubach 2004–2014

- 3 Worksite Health Promotion in Small and Large Businesses; Bernhard Zimolong, Ruhr Universität Bochum, Germany 19
- 4 Controlling and Managing Occupational Safety and Health – Examples Denmark and Germany; Pernille S. Strøbæk, Denmark and Joachim Vogt, TU Darmstadt, Germany 53
- 5 Successful Management and Leadership in Occupational Safety and Health; Jochen Gurt and Gabriele Elke, Ruhr Universität Bochum, Germany 65
- 6 Controlling and Managing Occupational Safety and Health – A Strategic Management Approach with the Balanced Scorecard, Joachim Vogt and Pernille S. Strøbæk, Denmark; TU Darmstadt, Germany 85

BG RCI Side Event; XX World Congress on Safety and Health at Work, Frankfurt 2014

- 7 The New BG RCI Prevention Strategy: Vision Zero: Zero Accidents – Healthy Working; Helmut Ehnes, BG RCI, Germany 93
- 8 How Does “Health” Influence the Achievement of “Vision Zero”; Esin Taşkan-Karamürsel, Germany 101

6 | Content

- 9 Practice and Implementation on the Journey to Zero;
Andreas Speth, DuPont, Germany 111
- 10 Commentary on a Broader Understanding of the Vision Zero
Strategy; Esin Taşkan-Karamürsel 115

Robert W. Campbell Award, San Diego 2014

- 11 A Practical Approach to Effective EHS Leading Indicators:
Lessons from the Best; John A. Dony and Joy Inouye 121
- 12 Defining World-Class EHS: An Analysis of Leading EHS
Management System Practices of Robert W. Campbell Award
Winners; John Dony, Laura Fiffick, Sarah Kerper, NSC,
Campbell Institute, USA 129
- 13 Building Operating Dexterity; Mei-Li Lin, USA 163

Authors 177